

DID YOU KNOW...

You can continue to be a leader in Explorers by being a Young Leader and helping other sections.

Being a Young Leader is great fun and will help you to develop your skills.

© 2018 The Scout Association
Registered charity numbers: 306101
(England and Wales) and SC038437 (Scotland)

SCOUTS

CONGRATULATIONS ON BECOMING A PATROL LEADER

BEING A PATROL LEADER

Being a Patrol Leader is a challenge but remember that your leaders have chosen you because they know you have what it takes to be a brilliant leader.

As a Patrol Leader, you will get the chance to:

- Help with planning the programme for your Scout Troop.
- Run a game for the Troop (this will be planned and agreed in advance with your leader).
- Help those in your Patrol.
- Set an example to the rest of your Patrol.

TOP TIPS

1. Help with the planning of the programme and attend forums
2. Take the lead in ceremonies
3. Be a role model for others in your Patrol
4. Plan and run activities and games
5. Welcome new Scouts into the Troop
6. Learn by doing and have fun!

My personal goal as a Patrol Leader is:

WELL DONE

Your leaders think you're the right person to be the Patrol Leader because:
